Mike just popped a breaker with the power tools. GONG xterm and NSO's scintillation monitor both reset as a result.

COMMENT: Thu Aug 7 21:21:15 GMT 1997

I will be shutting down early. I need to rendezvous with a tow truck arriving here around noon. Strut broke out of mount this morning at the last of the potholes on our road. Car is unsafe to drive and driving it with the strut loose will further damage the hood, which almost has a hole punched thru it.
