Clouds have thinned, Spar is tracking, starting PICS and CHIP.

COMMENT: Sun Jul 1 18:00:29 GMT 2001

Hoike must have rebooted last night, I had to get the monitor out of Power Saving mode and login and then startup the animations.

COMMENT: Sun Jul 1 18:53:48 GMT 2001

Clock on answering machine was off, so there must have been a power glitch that also affected Hoike last night.

GONG PROBLEM Sun Jul 1 20:10:53 GMT 2001

I went down to the shelter and fixed a problem that was giving fault indicators on the GUI. The power supplies were good but I had to replace the ADC board. They will send us another one and then we will send the bad board to them in Tucson. This is probably related to the power glitch(es) last night. There may be hail near the summit which may be an indicator of an electrical storm.

WEATHER COMMENT: Sun Jul 1 20:13:58 GMT 2001

Thick orographic clouds are here, it looks like it may rain, stopped obs.
