CoMP COMMENT BY BEN: Mon Aug 1 17:54:21 GMT 2011

CoMP background (in darks) looks noisy. This may improve over the day but I would have expected the image to be nice since we are already cold.

PSPT COMMENT BY BEN: Tue Aug 2 02:11:24 GMT 2011

We might have fixed the pspt relay chattering issue.
It was found that the dome was physically moving faster than the controller software expected. So we edited the axis.c file on the pspt machine to change the default_vel[DOMES] value from -300 to -350. With the new faster velocity target the dome moves smoothly and the relay stays open for the whole move. We find that the dome stops within 20 counts of the commanded position.

The new mlgong-x station is crashing like the old one. Should we put it on a UPS?
