I replaced the RTD temp probe on the Tek Temp Chiller. It is now operating properly. I will start chip when it reaches its set point of 24C.

CHIP COMMENT BY GREG: Tue Feb 19 22:45:25 GMT 2013

I went up to check the Tek Temp, and it had overflowed the coolant all over. I did realize how much it would expand when hot. The coolant spilled on the electronics.

I cleaned it all off but it did spill into the controller. The controller is not working right now. I am cleaning the internal pcb of the controller, but it probably damaged now.
