WEATHER COMMENT: waters: Sun Aug 30 16:42:59 GMT 2015

Temp 43F with windspeed at about 5mph from the Southwest. A bit of cirrus currently in the Suns' path and rapidly building clouds over Mauna Kea and the East coast will be well worth watching.

GENERAL OBSERVATORY COMMENT BY waters: Mon Aug 31 01:36:36 GMT 2015

Covered the instruments with trap just in case we get some rain up here due to the hurricane. Also moved the dome to a position that will hopefully minimize any rain coming in.
