looring Day 3. No obs (or at least obs unlikely today) while more flooring is installed. The installed flooring looks pr tty good; and things are starting to look like a finished observatory.

eneral observatory comment by berkey. The mar 17 01:15:31 GMT 2016 ome floor almost done just needs a little bit more trim and work on the cableing pass though. Down stairs mostly done ex cpt PSPT dome area.

We should be able to get back into observing mode mid-morning tomorrow.
