KCOR COMMENT BY berkey: Wed Nov 04 17:29:59 GMT 2020

Moved the Kcor ILX off the USB extender to a cable to plug directly into the computer.

This change removes the series of windows system Warnings we were getting every 20 seconds due to some sort of communications issues with the USB extender.

Power company had a long planned outage today.

Unfortunately it looks like no one on the mountain was informed of the outage.

Skies became overcast just a little after the outage hit.
