NOTE BY DARRYL: Tue May 8 17:05:45 GMT 2012

This is my last day observing at MLSO. It seems like just yesterday that I was thinking "it sure has been a long time since I started working at MLSO" :) But seriously, it has been a great experience working at MLSO, and it allowed me to clear some land, build my home, start a family, and save up enough money to do other things when the time was right, and the time is right now. There have been some great experiences and relationships, good luck!

Aloha!, Darryl
